FINAL GRUNION RUN SLATED FOR TONIGHT

Grunion will put in their final appearance for the current four day run this evening at midnight. The run is scheduled to last about one hour.

The current four-day run is the second of the month. Remember that valid fishing licenses are required for all persons over 16 years of age.

Esabs Score 43-0 Victory Over Teens

Tuesday night at McMaster Park the first pace Esabs completely annihilated the last place Teens in the Girls Softball League. When the Esabs finally got through running around the bases, they had rung up a grand total of 43 runs to none for the Teens. In spite of the 25 hits collected by the Esabs, and the 10 errors committed by the Teens, the Teens showed improvement on the field. The winning pitcher, Judy Clements, gave up only one hit in posting her eighth straight victory. Every Esab player, except one, hit safely at least twice and all scored at least 3 times. THURSDAY night the Walteria Park saw the Mishaps jump all over the Teens 16 to 1. And the Teens continued to show improvement. The game featured two home runs by the Mishaps' left fielder, Donna Rockwood. The winning pitcher was Aggie Faschief and Cheryl Rice gets the loss. The other half of the double header saw the Vandals take a firm hold on second place by defeating the Challengers 13 to 3. The Vandals blasted losing pitcher Kathy Reed for 15 hits. Neither team was able to hit anything longer than a double. Marsha Post, Vandal catcher, and 3 singles in 4 trips to the plate; Sue Campbell, second baseman had 2 singles and a double, and six other Vandals had 2 hits a piece, including their slumping first baseman, Dot Searles. Dot seems to have solved her trouble at the plate.

Rams Game On TV Today

The first in the series of nine pre-season "Professional Football" games will be broadcast on KNXT with the video tape of the Los Angeles Rams vs. Detroit Lions gridiron tilt today (1:30 to 3:00 p.m.) on KNXT, Channel 2. The game was played in Boulder, Colorado, last night with Gil Stratton, sports director for KNXT and the CBS Network, calling the plays.

Upsets Mark Action In Softball Loops

Industrial League play Wednesday evening provided softball fans with their second surprise of the week when the Post Office nine, already assured of an Industry Loop crown, were turned back 5-4 by the Harvey Aluminum squad. Jerry Duval lost the game, while the win was credited to Clinton Smith's account. The Post Office registered four big errors and the Harvey men had a trio of miscues.

Ryan, Inglewood, defeated the Ryan Aeros, 4-1, in the only other Industrial League play. Winner was Red Thompson while the loss was charged to Jay Howard. The Aeros collected but five hits in the effort.

A SINGLE Red League game produced an 11-1 win for the Rome Cable Company over the Torrance VFW. The Romans pounded out 13 hits and dented home plate 11 times while the only VFW run came on a second inning homer by Richard Gerade. Six errors on the part of the VFW nine made the difference in the game.

The JFF nine shut out the Columbia ERA nine, 2-0 in a Black League game at Torrance Park. Winner was Al Hunt, who allowed only six hits. The loss was charged to Ron Chase.

Following final week form, the Marine Clerks, who had virtually sewed up the Open League crown, were turned back by a determined R. C. Dyer nine, 4-0. The shutout victory was recorded by Don Riedue while Charles Camou was the loser. The Marine Clerks collected four hits in their bid for the title.

THREE GAMES in the Service League provided a full slate of action for the City's service club members. In the first one the Hollywood Riv-

Local Residents Place in Model Airplane Event

Three Torrance residents were among the many award winners at the 1959 National Model Airplane Championships held this past week at the Los Alamitos Naval Air Station. The award winners were David Fuchsberger, 2224 South Vermont, who took second place in the Junior Class "A" gas powered free flight event; Ronnie Young, 3314 W. 168th Street, who placed second in the Team Race Event; and Marvin Forman, 5302 Via Del Valle, a third place winner in the Open Nordic A-2 Glider Event.

Tourney Enters Final Week-end

Paul Dane took over as the new leader in the Bowl-O-Drome's week-end tourney, rolling up an 1178 and moving into top contention for the $1000 prize money. Last week's leader, Jim Morris, dropped into second place. Others in the race are Jack Halpin, third; Frank Troccoli, fourth; and Alice (Kee) Fong, fifth. In the scratch Lee Mincier leads with 1014 while Gwen Hyduke, Marge Mathews and

More than 1300 model airplane builders and flyers were entered in the competition. Entrants represented all fifty states. Competition was conducted in three classes, Junior for contestants under 16, Senior for ages 16-21, and Open for all those over 21. The event, sponsored by the Academy of Model Aeronautics, is considered to be the "world series" of model aviation. Maxine Little trail in that order. Bob Briggs takes over the men's scratch lead and drops Bob Horn to second place. In the women's handicap Bobbie Shaler leads with an 1123. Fred Nadroski has rolled up high game for the men with 270 while a 243 gives Anita Foss high women's game.
